RE: Contact Information

As some of you may already know, today is my last day of employment with the Department. My husband has accepted a position in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After our daughter's marriage ceremony in September I will relocate to Tulsa. The purpose of this communication is to provide contact information in my absence.

Ryan Phillips is assigned to work with providers in the same capacity I have been. Ryan may be reached at (208) 334-6610 and his email address is phillipr@dhw.idaho.gov.

Danielle Miller is the Administrative Assistant assigned to work with providers. Danielle may be reached at (208) 334-5935 and her email address is millerd@dhw.idaho.gov. Michelle Buskey is devoting her time to working with the WITS/GAIN Interface.

John Kirsch is the Program Specialist assigned to the Qualified Substance Use Disorders Professional (QSUDP) project. John may be reached at (208) 334-6680 and his email address is KirschJ@dhw.idaho.gov.

Some of you may have noticed a new contact for Center for the Application of Substance Abuse Technologies (CASAT). Mark Disselkoen is still with CASAT but will be devoting his time to other issues outside of Idaho. He will still provide technical assistance when called upon. Pete Singleton is now the Certification Director for CASAT for Idaho. Pete can be reached at (702) 506-7912 and his email address is psingleton@casat.org. Alan Burden and Jim Von Busch will still be conducting site visits.

I am torn about leaving employment I have truly enjoyed a State with such a quality of life. When asked what my favorite part of my job has been, my response is the opportunity to work with the caliber of professionals this job has afforded me. Thank you for the tireless, selfless work you all do. Wishing you the best.
